Mr. and Mrs. David Simpson
717 E. 4th
Rector, Arkansas

Dear Brother and Sister Simpson:

I know of no better way to have climaxed a week than to have spent the last day of the Rector meeting in your home. Your kind reception of me and your excellent food is deeply appreciated.

I am grateful for your interest in the Lord's Church. It is because of men and women like you that the Church is making the kind of progress it should.

I send you my best regards for your health and happiness.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
